

Nosework with Laurie McLaughlin

Tuesday, November 19, 2019

Pam & Marysa Snider's farm
563362 Thomas Road, Ingersoll, On.

Laurie McLaughlin is going to join us again on Tuesday, November 19, 2019 with a workshop to further develop our handling skills, training techniques and will be going over UKC rules for 2020.

Workshop spaces will be limited with the goal of giving everyone a chance to discuss their Nosework challenges with Laurie and to share with the group.

This day will be split into 2 sections. In the morning a quick review on Scent Handling moving into further development of our Handling Skills and onto foundation training games for our novice to elite dogs. In the afternoon Laurie will go over the new UKC rules for 2020. There are some changes coming that will affect our handling and training techniques. We will also look at some handling skills for clearing rooms at the upper levels.

There are 8- 10 working spots.

No auditing spots this workshop.

Closing date for registrations is November 5, 2019

Full day working spots are $150.00

Participants are welcome to bring 2 dogs, one from novice activities and one for more advanced exercises.

Please bring chairs, dog crates, indoor shoes and any other items for your personal comfort.

AND LOTS OF DOG TREATS

The morning session will run from 9-12, lunch from 12-1 and the afternoon session 1-4.

Lunch will be provided, salads, hot lunch, juices, coffee & dessert.

Nosework Workshop with Laurie McLaughlin

Over the course of this one-day workshop we will cover the following subjects

Scent Handling	Starting and Refining skills Novice to Elite dogs	UKC rule changes for 2020
Morning session	Morning session	Afternoon session
<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Brief Review	<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Further developing and promoting strong alerts Novice to Superior dogs○ Handling Skills○ Foundation games for Novice to Elite dogs	<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ How these changes will affect handling and training.○ Clearing a room – Master to Elite dogs